Glasgow, KY

Mixed animal practice is located in beautiful south-central Kentucky! Seeking associate veterinarian. Possible purchase opportunity! Position can be tailored to fit interest and skill set (can do mixed animal or small animal only). Any experience level is welcome, and we are willing to mentor new graduates. Salary will be negotiable based on experience. Our practice is long established and has a large, loyal client base. We are looking for a bright young person that would ideally be interested in buying the practice after working as an associate vet for several years.

This is a great deal for someone who is ready to hit the ground running with a very successful practice. Starting from scratch can be hard and it takes time to build such an established client base. Lucky for you, all that has already been taken care of! You will have the opportunity to treat all animals great and small and be a leader and asset to a wonderful community. Please contact Dr. Steve Webb at sdw@glasgow-ky.com or on his cell at 270-646-8277. We look forward to hearing from you.

Somerset, KY

Lake Cumberland Animal Hospital is searching for a veterinarian to join our team. This is a great opportunity for someone looking for a healthy balance between providing high-quality veterinary care and enjoying a high quality of life for themselves and their family. Someone who enjoys building relationships with pet owners as much as providing veterinary care to their pets. We have a progressive hospital environment that encourages sharing ideas and perspectives on the practice of veterinary medicine; we're able to adapt and stay current with the fast-changing field. We are a fully equipped, companion animal hospital (in-house UA/CBC/Chemistry, digital X-ray, ultrasound, therapy laser) in the thriving small town community of Somerset, KY. A four-day work week with rotating on call (our clients only). We offer a nice compensation package and starting salary commensurate with experience. The Pulaski County Somerset area is a hidden gem. The cost of living is low, yet the level of services is surprisingly high. The area abounds with recreational opportunities. Please send resume to 2vets@windstream.net or call 606-383-1803. (SP23)

We would love to tell you more. Contact us at 502-345-8092 or submit resume to lmckinney@vetcor.com. (S22)

Grayson, KY

Bluegrass Animal Clinic is a 5-year-old, mixed animal practice located in Grayson, Ky. We are dedicated to quality animal care. The clinic is not a 24-hour clinic, but does take emergency after-hours calls for small and large animals when the need arises. We are looking to add a full-time or part-time associate veterinarian to our team and are looking forward to discussing employment opportunities. We are looking for a well-rounded veterinarian dedicated to learning and quality care. Experience is preferred, but we will consider new graduates. Canine and feline will be the bulk of the operations. We have electrocautery for surgeries, spay and neuter surgery, cruciate ligament repairs, fracture reduction and repair, general soft tissue surgery, dental procedures (cleaning and teeth extractions). Diagnostics include: digital DR X-ray system, ultrasonography, Abaxis VS2 chemistry analyzer (we have three machines for simultaneous use), HMS hematology machine, SA urine sediment analyzer and SA vetscan, centrifuge for IRAP, Microhematocrit centrifuge, FLEX4HWT, PARVOsnap, GiardiaSnap, Felv/FIV, CPL, incubator for general use in the lab, Diff-Quick stain for cytologies, semen evaluation and much more. We do hospitalize small animal patients overnight and we have six IV infusion pumps; all six pumps are in use during certain times of the year. Treatment sheets must be provided for each patient we hospitalize. General preventative care we provide includes vaccinations, fecal checks, deworming, regenerative medicine: IRAP cytokine therapy, companion laser technology, Adequan/Chondroprotec therapy. Most of the equine work Dr. Whitley does is theriogenology (includes ultrasound for preg checks, artificial insemination and stud collection on occasion) and routine equine healthcare such as Coggins, health certificates, vaccinations, field castrations, the occasional laceration repair, general internal medicine and dental floating procedures. Farm animal work is variable and can range from calf pulling to camel castrations to herd health operations and general farm animal internal medicine. Please submit resume to: bluegrassanimalclinj@gmail.com (S22)

LaGrange, KY

Oldham County Veterinary Services, located in Lagrange, KY, is seeking a part-time or full-time associate veterinarian. New graduates and all experience levels are welcome! We offer competitive salaries, comprehensive benefits and flexible schedules for a great work/life balance. Our hospital offers internal medicine, diagnostic imaging, laser therapy, surgery, etc. We are not a 24-hour hospital, but we do take emergency after-hour calls. Our goal is to provide a fear-free environment and always offer the best care for all pets. We are a growing, small animal practice with wonderful family oriented, passionate staff looking forward to welcoming a new doctor to our hospital. We all love what we do and have fun while we do it, so a great sense of humor is a must! For more information and to learn more about OCVS, please contact Dr. Mark G. Chick at mchickdvm.ocvs@gmail.com or feel free to stop in at any time. We look forward to meeting you. (SP22)
